(the “Company”)

CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT AND ETHICS

I. PURPOSE

This Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (“Code”) of the Company is intended to document the principles of conduct and ethics to be followed by all the Company’s employees, officers and directors and any consultants or other external parties in a similar role with the Company. References herein to the Company include any subsidiaries of the Company.

The purpose of the Code is to:

- Promote honest and ethical conduct, including the ethical handling of actual or apparent conflicts of interest between personal and professional relationships;
- Promote avoidance of conflicts of interest, including disclosure to an appropriate person of any material transaction or relationship that reasonably could be expected to give rise to such a conflict;
- Promote full, fair, accurate, timely and understandable disclosure in reports and documents that the Company files with, or submits to, the securities regulators and in other public communications made by the Company;
- Promote compliance with applicable governmental laws, rules and regulations;
- Promote the prompt internal reporting to an appropriate person of violations of this Code;
- Promote accountability for adherence to this Code;
- Provide guidance to employees, officers and directors to help them recognize and deal with ethical issues;
- Foster the development of a culture of honesty and accountability within the Company; and
- Describe the procedure for reporting and if appropriate investigation of any perceived violations of this Code or any perceived unethical business conduct

Violations of this Code are grounds for disciplinary action up to and including, but without limitation, immediate termination of employment or request for resignation of a directorship.

II. WORKPLACE

a. A Nondiscriminatory Environment

The Company fosters a work environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and dignity. The Company is an equal opportunity employer and does not, as an organization nor does it permit its employees or directors to discriminate against employees, officers, directors or potential employees, officers or directors on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, sexual orientation or disability or any other category protected by federal and state/provincial laws and regulations and, in addition, in accordance with the laws or regulations applicable in the jurisdiction where such employees, officers or directors are located. The Company is committed to actions and policies to assure fair employment, including equal treatment in hiring, promotion, training, compensation, termination and corrective action and will not tolerate discrimination by its employees and agents.

b. Harassment-Free Workplace

The Company will not tolerate harassment of its employees, customers or suppliers in any form.

c. Substance Abuse

The Company is committed to maintaining a safe and healthy work environment free of substance abuse. Employees, officers and directors are expected to perform their responsibilities in a professional manner and, to the degree that job performance or judgment may be hindered, be free from the effects of drugs and/or alcohol.

g. Corporate Opportunities

As an employee, officer or director, you are prohibited from taking for yourself opportunities that you discover through the use of company property, information or position, from using company property, information or position for personal gain; and from competing with the Company. Employees, officers and directors owe a duty to the Company to advance its legitimate interests when the opportunity arises.

III. Environment, Health and Safety

a. Environment

The Company is committed to sound environmental management. It is the intent of the Company to conduct itself having due respect for the environment and community at large as a responsible and caring corporate citizen. The Company is committed to managing all phases of its business in a manner that minimizes any adverse effects of its operations on the environment.

b. Health and Safety

The Company is committed to providing a healthy and safe workplace in compliance with applicable laws, rules and regulations. Employees must be aware of the safety issues and policies that affect their job, other employees and the community in general. Employees in a supervisory role, upon learning of any circumstance affecting the health and safety of the workplace or the community, must act immediately to address the situation. Employees must immediately advise their immediate supervisor of any workplace injury or any circumstance presenting a dangerous situation to them, other co-workers or the community in general, so that timely corrective action can be taken.

IV. THIRD PARTY RELATIONSHIPS

a. Conflict of Interest

Employees, officers and directors are required to act with honesty and integrity and to avoid any relationship or activity that might create, or appear to create, a conflict between their personal interests and the interests of the Company. Employees must disclose promptly in writing possible conflicts of interest to their immediate supervisor, or if the supervisor is involved in the conflict of interest, to that supervisor's superior. Officers and directors should disclose, in writing, any perceived conflicts to the Chairman of the Audit Committee.

Conflicts of interest arise where an individual's position or responsibilities with the Company present an opportunity for personal gain apart from the normal rewards of employment, officership or directorship, to the detriment of the Company. They also arise where a director's, officer's or employee's personal interests are inconsistent with those of the Company and create conflicting loyalties. Such conflicting loyalties can cause a director, officer or employee to give preference to personal interests in situations where corporate responsibilities should come first. Directors, officers and employees shall perform the responsibilities of their positions on the basis of what is in the best interests of the Company and free from the influence of personal considerations and relationships.

Directors, officers and employees shall not acquire any property, security or any business interest which they know that the Company is interested in acquiring. Moreover, based on such advance information, directors, officers and employees shall not acquire any property, security or business interest for speculation or investment.

b. Competitive Practices

The Company firmly believes that fair competition is fundamental to the continuation of the free enterprise system. The Company complies with and supports laws which prohibit restraints of trade, unfair practices, or abuse of economic power.

The Company's policy also prohibits employees, officers and directors from entering into or discussing any unlawful arrangement or understanding that may result in unfair business practices or anticompetitive behavior.

c. Supplier and Contractor Relationships

The Company selects its suppliers and contractors in a non-discriminatory manner based on the quality, price, service, delivery and supply of goods and services. A director's, officer's or employee's decision must never be based on personal interests or the interests of family members or friends.

Employees should inform their supervisors, and officers and directors should inform the Chairman of the Audit Committee of any relationships that appear to create a conflict of interest.

e. Public Relations

The Company's Board of Directors establishes the persons who are responsible for all public relations, including all contact with the media. Unless a director, officer or employee is specifically authorized to represent the Company to the media, a director, officer or employee should not respond to inquiries or requests for information. This includes newspapers, magazines, trade publications, radio and television as well as any other external sources requesting information about the Company. If the media contacts a director, officer or employee about any topic, that person should immediately refer the call to an authorized person.

Employees must be careful not to disclose confidential, personal or non-public business information through public or casual discussions to the media or others. Information is considered to be public if it has been disclosed by the Company in an annual report, annual information form, management information circular, press release or interim financial report. The obligation to keep certain information confidential applies both during appointment or employment with the Company, and after termination of appointment or employment, including on retirement. These same standards apply to the non-public information of other companies that you may learn about because of your association or employment with the Company.

f. Directorships

Employees of the Company shall not act as directors or officers of any other corporate entity or organization, public or private, without the prior written approval of the Chief Executive Officer or the Chairman of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee. Directorships or officerships with such entities will not be authorized if they are considered to not be in the best interest of the Company. The Chief Executive Officer or the Chairman of the Corporate Governance and Nominating Committee may provide authorizations for directorships that are necessary for business purposes or for directorships with charitable organizations or other entities that will further the Company's profile in the community.

V. LEGAL COMPLIANCE

a. Compliance with Laws, Rules and Regulations (Including Insider Trading Laws and Timely Disclosure)

Employees, officers and directors are expected to comply in good faith at all times with all applicable laws, rules and regulations.

Employees, officers and directors are required to comply with insider trading rules and all other policies and procedures applicable to them that are adopted by the Company from time to time.

Employees, officers and directors must cooperate fully with those responsible for preparing reports filed with the securities regulatory authorities and all other materials that are made available to the investing public to ensure those persons are aware in a timely manner of all information that is required to be disclosed. Employees, officers and directors should also cooperate fully with the independent auditors in their audits and in assisting in the preparation of financial disclosure.

Senior officers of the Company must comply with the Company's procedures on timely disclosure of material information and provide full, fair, accurate, understandable and timely disclosure in reports and documents filed with, or submitted to, securities regulatory authorities and other materials that are made available to the investing public.

VI. INFORMATION AND RECORDS

a. Confidential and Proprietary Information and Trade Secrets

Employees, officers and directors may be exposed to certain information that is considered confidential by the Company, or may be involved in the design or development of new procedures or technologies related to the business of the Company. All such information, procedures and technologies, whether or not the subject of copyright or patent, are the sole property of the Company. Employees shall not disclose confidential information to persons outside the Company, including family members, and should share it only with other employees who have a "need to know".

Employees, officers and directors are responsible and accountable for safeguarding the Company's documents and information to which they have direct or indirect access as a result of their employment, officership or directorship with the Company.

b. Financial Reporting and Records

The Company maintains a high standard of accuracy and completeness in its financial records. These records serve as a basis for managing its business and are crucial for meeting obligations to employees, customers, investors and others, as well as for compliance with regulatory, tax, financial reporting and other legal requirements. Employees, officers, and directors who make entries into business records or who issue regulatory or financial reports, have a responsibility to fairly present all information in a truthful, accurate and timely manner. No employee, officer or director shall exert any influence over, coerce, mislead or in any way manipulate or attempt to manipulate the independent auditors of the Company.

c. Record Retention

The Company maintains all records in accordance with laws and regulations regarding retention of business records. The term “business records” covers a broad range of files, reports, business plans, receipts, policies and communications, including hard copy, electronic, audio recording, microfiche and microfilm files whether maintained at work or at home. The Company prohibits the unauthorized destruction of or tampering with any records, whether written or in electronic form, where the Company is required by law or government regulation to maintain such records or where it has reason to know of a threatened or pending government investigation or litigation relating to such records.

VII. THE COMPANY'S ASSETS

a. Use of Company Property

The use of Company property for individual profit or any unlawful unauthorized personal or unethical purpose is prohibited. The Company’s information, technology, intellectual property, mineral rights, buildings, land, equipment, machines, software and cash must be used only for business purposes except as provided by Company policy or approved by an employee’s respective supervisor.

b. Destruction of Property and Theft

Employees, officers and directors shall not intentionally damage or destroy the property of the Company and others or commit theft.

c. Intellectual Property of Others

Employees, officers and directors may not reproduce, distribute or alter copyrighted materials without permission of the copyright owner or its authorized agents. Software used in connection with the Company’s business must be properly licensed and used only in accordance with that license.

d. Information Technology

The Company's information technology systems, including computers, e-mail, intranet and internet access, telephones and voice mail are the property of the Company and are to be used primarily for business purposes. The Company’s information technology systems may be used for minor or incidental personal messages provided that such use is kept at a minimum and is in compliance with Company policy.

Employees, officers and directors may not use the Company's information technology systems to:

- Allow others to gain access to the Company's information technology systems through the use of an employee's password or other security codes;
- Send harassing, threatening or obscene messages;
- Send chain letters;
- Access the internet for inappropriate use;
- Send copyrighted documents that are not authorized for reproduction;
- Make personal or group solicitations unless authorized by a senior officer; or
- Conduct personal commercial business.

The Company may monitor the use of its information technology systems.

VIII. COMPLIANCE WITH THE CODE

a. All Employees are to Read and Comply with the Code

The Company will monitor compliance with the Code by requiring each director, officer and employee to review and understand the Code and acknowledge that they will comply with the Code.

b. Reports and Complaints

As an employee if you believe that a violation of the Code or any law rule or regulation has been or is likely to be committed by you or someone else who is a representative of the Company, you have an obligation to promptly report the relevant information to your supervisor, since your supervisor will generally be in the best position to resolve the issue. If an employee is unsure about the best course of action to take with respect to a particular situation, the employee is encouraged to seek guidance, using the procedures set forth in the Company's Whistle Blower Policy. Employees who become aware of, or have any questions with respect to, any violation or potential violation of any law, rule or regulation or of this Code, or have any concerns with respect to accounting, internal controls or auditing matters, are required to promptly report it in accordance with the Company's Whistle Blower Policy. Any reports submitted hereunder and thereunder will be promptly and thoroughly investigated and addressed in accordance with the Whistle Blower Policy.

Directors should report violations to the Chairman of the Board, or to the relevant committee chair.

Confidentiality of reported violations will be maintained to the fullest extent possible, consistent with the need to conduct adequate investigation and subject to law.

The Company will impose discipline for each Code violation that fits the nature and facts of the violation. The Company also reserves the right to discipline employees who make accusations of Code violations that are frivolous, if they are made for retaliatory reasons, or made without a reasonable good faith belief in the truth and accuracy of the information, or if a person knowingly makes a false accusation.

WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY

I. OBJECTIVE AND SCOPE

The Company is committed to the highest standards of openness, honesty and accountability that its various stakeholders are entitled to expect. References herein to the Company include any subsidiaries of the Company.

As a result, the Company wants to know about any and all dishonest, fraudulent or unacceptable behavior, conduct or practices committed by the Company's employees regarding employee use of company assets, employee transactions with other companies while acting on behalf of the Company, accounting matters generally, internal accounting and/or controls, the conduct of the audit of its financial accounts and statements or related matters, or other "non-financial" matters and actions, which, if disclosed, could reasonably be expected to raise concerns regarding the integrity, ethics or bona fides of the Company (a "Questionable Event") and expects its employees to feel confident about disclosing and reporting on any concerns they may have about any Questionable Event they become aware of.

In accordance with the Company's commitment set out above, this Policy is meant to provide a simple procedure to facilitate the receipt, retention, review and resolution of complaints, denunciations, warnings, given in any form by any employee of the Company, regarding a Questionable Event.

II. BACKGROUND AND EMPLOYEE ALERT PROCEDURE

This Policy is intended to encourage and enable employees to voice their concerns regarding any Questionable Event within the Company rather than ignoring them or, ultimately, feeling compelled to deal with the Questionable Event outside the Company due to a lack of the availability of the mechanism provided hereunder.

Any employee who finds his concerns about a Questionable Event not satisfactorily addressed by his immediate supervisor (or higher-ranking persons) or who feels that the seriousness and sensitivity of the issues or people involved require that the reporting of such Questionable Event should neither be addressed to the attention of his immediate supervisor, nor follow the normal corporate reporting channels, should contact the Company's Employee Alert Officer who will notify the independent board member and Audit Committee Chair, by any of the following methods:

Telephone: 208-699-6097

Email: monique@idahostrategic.com

Any concerns regarding financial statement disclosures, accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, should also be directed to the Employee Alert Officer.

III. SAFEGUARDS AGAINST RETALIATION, HARASSMENT OR VICTIMIZATION

The Company understands and acknowledges that one's decision to report a Questionable Event can be a difficult one to make. Employees who raise serious concerns should have nothing to fear. Therefore, the Company shall not tolerate any retaliation, harassment or victimization (including informal pressures) and shall take appropriate action to protect employees who raise any concerns under this Policy in good faith (a "Concerned Employee").

IV. CONFIDENTIALITY

All expressions of concerns or reports on Questionable Events within the Company, filed with the Employee Alert Officer pursuant to this Policy, will proceed internally on a confidential basis.

V. ANONYMOUS ALLEGATIONS

All expressions of serious concerns or reports on Questionable Events within the Company filed with the Employee Alert Officer on an anonymous basis will also be treated appropriately.

VI. UNTRUE ALLEGATIONS

In the event that, in good faith, a Concerned Employee reports a Questionable Event that is not confirmed by subsequent investigation or otherwise, no action shall be taken against such Concerned Employee. Conversely, in the event a Concerned Employee reports a Questionable Event for frivolous or malicious purposes or for his or her personal gain, the appropriate disciplinary or legal action will be taken against such Concerned Employee, including possible dismissal for cause.

VII. HOW TO RAISE A CONCERN

Concerns may be raised with the Employee Alert Officer verbally or in writing (including by e-mail).

Concerned Employees who wish to make a written report are asked to provide:

- the background and history of the Questionable Event (giving relevant dates);
- the reasons prompting the particular concern about the situation;
- the extent to which the Concerned Employee has personally witnessed or experienced the Questionable Event (providing documented evidence where possible).

VIII. RECORDS AND REPORTING

The Employee Alert Officer will maintain a record of concerns raised and the outcomes (but in a form which does not endanger the confidentiality of a Concerned Employee's identity where necessary) and will report to the Chairman of the Board or the entire Board of Directors of the Company, having regard to the nature of the Questionable Event raised and whether or not it relates to the financial position and/or financial statements and/or disclosures of the Company or to other "non-financial" matters related to the Company.

IX. INVESTIGATION

The Chairman of the Board or the Board (or a Committee of independent directors so designated by the Board), shall determine the steps and procedures to be taken to address the concern appropriately and whether an investigation is appropriate and, if so, what form such investigation should take as well as other parameters (for example whether external investigators should be employed, the timing of such investigation and other such matters as are deemed appropriate under the circumstances).

Except, of course, in the case of anonymous allegations, the Concerned Employee will be informed of the outcome of any investigation and/or any treatment of his or her claim or notice.
